

CHARLOTTE BALLET ACADEMY[®]

2016/2017 DRESS CODE UPDATES

“Our new dress code provides more options and gives dancers the opportunity to align their tights and shoes to their skin tone. Details from the top of the head to the end of the toe are paramount in ballet and these changes will better reflect the dancers’ whole bodies. This is an exciting reflection of how ballet can embrace more than one tone or archetype.”

“I’M LOOKING FORWARD TO BRINGING OUR CONVERSATIONS WITH PARENTS AND STUDENTS TO FRUITION WITH NEW LEOTARD, TIGHTS AND SHOE COLORS THAT REALLY HIGHLIGHT THE ACADEMY’S PROFESSIONAL AESTHETIC AND DEDICATION TO TRAINING EXCELLENCE, WHILE NICELY SUITING OUR DANCERS.”

-Kati Hanlon Mayo
Academy Artistic Coordinator

After extensive surveying and conversation with Charlotte Ballet Academy parents and dancers, the Academy is thrilled to implement an updated dress code for the 2016/2017 School Year. By partnering with the Eurotard brand, the new dress code will offer high quality, reasonably priced dancewear for our Academy families.

A summary of dress code items can be found on the Eurotard website: <https://eurotard.com/v4/classes.aspx?studio=S-Ch0101>. You can also be directed to this link on charlotteballet.org and will find more details about your child’s ballet Division on the reverse of this sheet. Additional dress code items for Jazz, Modern and Character classes are listed on Eurotard’s Charlotte Ballet Academy page.

Families have the option of purchasing dress code items at our local retail partners, (M-Azing Dancewear, Morris Costumes or Lebos.) You can also order through the Eurotard site, choose a participating retailer and have the items shipped to you or pick them up in store.
