Dear Dance Educator,

We are proud to announce the third annual Middle & High School Dance Festival presented by Charlotte Ballet. The Festival will be held Saturday and Sunday, October 21-22 at the Patricia McBride and Jean-Pierre Bonnefoux Center for Dance in Charlotte, North Carolina. The two-day festival welcomes regional students in grades 6-12 who are representing their middle or high school.

The cost of the two-day festival includes:

- A commemorative Festival t-shirt
- A ticket to Charlotte Ballet's Saturday matinee performance of Fall Works
- A hip-hop dance class and party on Saturday night
- A full day of dance classes in various genres on Sunday
- Entry into the adjudicated Festival performance on Sunday night

The Festival is an opportunity for young dancers to learn, explore, perform and share with other dancers alike. Participating students have the opportunity to audition for scholarships to summer and college programs, take master classes in various genres including ballet, modern, jazz, tap, hip-hop, musical theater, Latin, African, yoga, Pilates, injury prevention and nutrition. In addition, there will be opportunities for dance educators to participate in round table discussions on topics that concern the art form of dance.

The Festival will also feature an adjudicated performance featuring faculty, guest choreographers and student works. The adjudication committee will honor the most talented works with Outstanding Choreography Awards.

We strongly encourage you to register your school early as space is limited. The school registration deadline is May 5, 2017, and the student registration deadline is September 15, 2017. Late registrations for both schools and students will be taken until September 25, 2017 for an additional fee.

If you are interested in submitting a work for the Festival performance, the adjudication deadline is May 31, 2017. All work must be received by this date for consideration. Schools will be informed by June 12, 2017 regarding the adjudication decisions.

The Middle & High School Dance Festival is a wonderful opportunity for your students to showcase their talents along with participating in challenging and rewarding dance classes. We are extremely excited about the third annual Festival and look forward to meeting you soon.

Sincerely,

Bianca Harris
 Director of Education & Outreach
 Charlotte Ballet
