Charlotte Ballet Reach is a community engagement scholarship program, which makes quality dance training accessible to students at no cost. Classes meet twice weekly, from October to May for the 2020/2021 season. Classes will tentatively be held virtually until the end of February 2021 upon which time they will be held locally at Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation Centers. Students must attend a virtual audition and demonstrate a natural talent for movement, the potential to be trained in dance and financial need.
