

CHARLOTTE BALLET

EDUCATION & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT PROGRAMS

Inspiring Movement, Sparking Minds, Building Community

Charlotte Ballet's Education & Community Engagement (ECE) Team delivers dynamic, inclusive, and multidisciplinary dance arts programming that connects people of all ages to the transformative power of ballet.

K-12 STUDENTS

- In-School Performances: Bringing the magic of ballet directly into classrooms and auditoriums
- Curriculum-Aligned Lessons: Dance integrated with academic subjects for deeper learning
- Arts-Integrated & Multidisciplinary: Merging movement with math, science, history, and language arts
- Master Classes: Technique and artistry taught by professional dancers

SENIORS

- Adaptive Movement Options: Movement for all mobility levels
- Lecture-Based Continued Learning: Exploring dance history, culture, and wellness through engaging talks

POST-SECONDARY & EMERGING ARTISTS

- Master Classes: Advanced training with Charlotte Ballet's renowned faculty
- Career Track Discussions: Navigating professional opportunities in dance and beyond
- Behind-the-Scenes Peek: What does the day in the life of a dancer, choreographer, educator, touring manager and lighting designer look like?

LOCAL DANCE STUDENTS

- Movement Sessions: Skill-building workshops tailored to aspiring dancers
- Arts Discussions: candid conversations with professionals about the pathways and possibilities in the world of dance

For more information, contact Kimberly Pereira,
Director of Education and Community Engagement education@charlotteballet.org / 704.414.2775
charlotteballet.org